Register Today for the Bob Bret Memorial Golf Tourney

If you are interested in enjoying some of the nicer weather we're having here in Florida, and golfing for a good cause, we still have some spots left in our annual Bob Bret Memorial Golf Tournament at Rosen Shingle Creek on Friday, Oct. 21.

This year's tournament, presented by Aero Simulation and Boeing, is an 8 a.m. shotgun start. This gives you plenty of time on Friday to enjoy the rest of the day at the pool or one of the Rosen's great restaurants. As always, we are very lucky to have the best sponsors and appreciate their support so much.

Along with Aero Simulation and Boeing, our thanks goes out to Cole Engineering, Cubic, CAE, CACI, Fortress Information Security, SoarTech, RotoSpeaks, Innovative Reasoning and Rocket Technology. Don't delay - sign up as an individual or put a team together. It's for a GREAT cause -- Navy Junior ROTC and the Sea Cadet Scholarships, the Navy Operational Support Center (NOSC) in Orlando and Port Canaveral United States Coast Guard Cutter Vigilant crew Morale, Welfare and Recreation Fund, and other CFNL support activities as identified. www.CFNavyLeague.org

Join Our Birthday Party and Celebrate the Navy on Oct. 22

With only a little over a week left, we are nearing this year's Birthday Ball, celebrating the 247th Birthday of the U.S. Navy. This year, in honor of the centennial of the U.S. Aircraft Carrier, we are excited to welcome guest speaker, Captain Cassidy Norman, commanding officer for the USS John C. Stennis-CVN-74. And of course, we are welcoming back the band, MPiRE, to entertain us after the dinner.

As always, we are appreciative of our many sponsors who are supporting this event beginning with our presenting sponsor, Cole Engineering. Thank you to Carley Corporation, Admiral's Reception sponsor; Boeing, Celebration of the Navy sponsor; Cubic Corporation, Keepsake sponsor; Fortress Information Security, Band sponsor; CAE, Diamond sponsor; Aero Simulation, SoarTech and CACI, Platinum sponsors; Valiant, Centerpiece sponsor; RotoSpeaks, Wine sponsor; and SIMETRI, Birthday Cake sponsor. Special thanks to11th Hour, Lockheed Martin, Tim's Wine and Barco for their support! Buy your tickets today at www.CFNavyLeague.org.

Navy vs UCF Football - Football Fun and Tailgating Nov. 19

For the second time since joining the American Athletic Conference (AAC), the Navy football team will be traveling to Orlando to play UCF. The game start time has not yet been announced, but it will be played on Nov 19. This is likely the last visit to Orlando for the Midshipmen, as UCF departs the AAC after this season. To take advantage of this visit, the US Naval Academy Alumni Association Orlando Chapter is hosting several events associated with the game. Tickets are on sale and may be purchased from the Navy or UCF ticket offices. Tickets in the Navy block are limited and available here or by calling the ticket office 1-800-US4-NAVY (874-6289). UCF tickets are sold via Ticketmaster.

The Alumni Association is also hosting a pre-game tailgater at University Carillon Methodist church (just across the street from the north side of the stadium), and tickets for that event are available online. With Navy's performance on the field taking an upward trend in the last several games, this should be an exciting matchup. Come cheer on the Midshipmen and enjoy your Navy family at the same time.
